

An opportunity to join Australia's leading radio broadcaster.

Technology Manager

- Do you want to work for the best in the radio business? Join Austereo!
- Come reach your full potential with a recognised employer of choice
- Vibrant culture, open plan, highly supportive team environment

AUSTEREO, one of Australia's most progressive and exciting entertainment based media companies, is looking for an enthusiastic and highly motivated individual to lead up its local Technology team in Melbourne.

Reporting to the General Manager – Melbourne, you will be responsible for managing the day to day operations and projects of your team and ensuring all technology related services are delivered in an efficient and customer focused manner. You'll coordinate the maintenance of studio and transmission facilities and oversee the implementation of new and upgraded technology. You'll help to maintain the company's competitive advantage in the Melbourne market by ensuring all content delivery platforms are maintained to the highest standards, and actively contributing to the formulation of the local business plan.

Make no mistake – we're looking for the best! As the winning candidate, you'll have:

- At least 5 years experience working with studio equipment and RF transmission systems or IT infrastructure, operating systems and applications. You've ideally worked as an Engineer in radio, however backgrounds in TV or other relevant industries will also be considered
- Tertiary qualifications in Electronic/Electrical Engineering or IT
- Proven experience in a technology based middle management role
- A supportive, collaborative and highly inspirational leadership style
- Excellent multitasking and time management skills
- A strong customer service focus and proactive approach to work
- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills
- Good exposure to both analogue and digital audio platforms and technologies

Interested? Please send your résumé and cover letter (with salary expectations) to careers@austereo.com.au quoting "097-10" in the subject line ("Internal 097-10" if you are a current employee). We look forward to receiving your application.

Applications close: Friday, 10 September 2010.
